REMYTELS DECEMBER ONE, FOUR, FIVE, AND SIX LAST AND TELCALL TO BUREAU TODAY.

POWER STRUGGLE FOR REPRESENTATION OF HUGHES' NEVADA INTERESTS BETWEEN CHESTER DAVIS - FRANK W. GAY (HUGHES TOOL CO.) AND ROBERT MAHEU (HUGHES NEVADA OPERATIONS) CONTINUES. LOCAL, NATIONAL, AND NUMEROUS FOREIGN PRESS REPRESENTATIVES AGGRESSIVELY PURSUING INTERESTS OF NEWS MEDIA IN LAS VEGAS.

DURING PM OF DECEMBER SEVEN LAST GOVERNOR PAUL LAXALT ANNOUNCED TO THE PRESS THAT HE AND CLARK COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY GEORGE FRANKLIN HAD TELEPHONE CONVERSATION WITH HUGHES EARLIER IN DAY. TELEPHONE CALL REPORTEDLY EMANATED FROM THE BAHAMAS AND LAXALT RELATED THAT HUGHES HAD TOLD HIM THAT HE HAD AUTHORIZED TAKE-OVER OF HUGHES NEVADA OPERATIONS BY DAVIS AND GAY AND HAD IN FACT TERMINATED ROBERT MAHEU AND JACK HOOPER. INDICATED HE WAS NOW ASSURED THAT HUGHES WAS ALIVE, WELL, AND HAD VALIDLY AUTHORIZED CHANGE OF REPRESENTATION. LAXALT FURTHER COMMENTED THAT HUGHES HAD TOLD HIM HE INTENDED TO RETURN TO NEVADA TO "LIVE THE REST OF HIS LIFE". DA FRANKLIN CONFIRMED THAT HUGHES TOLD HIM AND LAXALT HE WAS IN FINE PHYSICAL CONDITION.

FOLLOWING THE GOVERNOR'S NEWS RELEASE THE MAHEU FACTION MADE A PRESS RELEASE INDICATING THEY WOULD NOT RELINQUISH CONTROL UNTIL LEGALLY ORDERED TO DO SO, BUT MADE NO OPEN CHALLENGE OF THE VERACITY OF THE GOVERNOR'S RELEASE. /

DAVIS - GAY FACTION HAVE FAILED TO PRODUCE THIS DOCUMENT UNTIL FORCED TO DO SO LATE LAST NIGHT IN CONNECTION WITH A LEGAL PLEADING THEY ARE PURSUING TO HAVE THE RESTRAINING ORDER WHICH WAS ISSUED AGAINST THEM DISMISSED. THE DOCUMENT ITSELF WAS FLOWN TO WASHINGTON, D.C., LAST NIGHT AND EXAMINED BY CHARLES APPEL, FORMER BUREAU DOCUMENT EXAMINER. [REDACTED] STATED APPEL FOUND HUGHES' SIGNATURE TO BE A FORGERY AND WILL TESTIFY TO SAME CONCLUSION. [REDACTED] INDICATED HE FEELS PROOF OF THIS FORGERY WILL SURFACE WHAT HE AND OTHERS CONSIDER TO BE THE "MOST MONUMENTAL STEAL ATTEMPT IN AMERICAN HISTORY".

[REDACTED] ALSO ADVISED THAT HE IS AWARE THAT DAVIS, AS GENERAL COUNSEL FOR HUGHES AND AS HIS LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE IN THE TWA SUIT AGAINST HUGHES, PRODUCED A PURPORTED SIGNATURE BY HOWARD HUGHES WHICH WAS ALSO DETERMINED TO BE A FORGERY. THIS OCCURED IN APPROXIMATELY NINETEEN SIXTY-FOUR OR SIXTY-FIVE IN THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK. NO PROSECUTIVE ACTION WAS TAKEN AT THAT TIME AGAINST DAVIS OR HIS GROUP INASMUCH AS THE POINT BECAME MOOT DUE TO THE DIRECTION THE SUIT THEREAFTER TOOK. THE BUREAU WILL RECALL THAT THE JUDGEMENT AGAINST HUGHES WITH ACCRUED INTEREST AMOUNTS TO APPROXIMATELY TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS AND IS CURRENTLY UNDER APPEAL.

[REDACTED] STATED HE DOES NOT BELIEVE THAT THE TELEPHONE CALL REPORTED BY GOVERNOR LAXALT WAS FROM HOWARD HUGHES AND THERE IS SERIOUS DOUBT IN HIS MIND AS TO HUGHES' WHEREABOUTS, COMPETENCY, AND PHYSICAL WELL-BEING. [REDACTED] SPECULATED THAT WHEN THE FORGERY IS OFFICALLY ANNOUNCED AND ACCEPTED, THE DAVIS-GAY FACTION WILL HAVE NO ALTERNATIVE EXCEPT TO RELINQUISH CONTROL AND DEPART NEVADA IN A HURRY.

GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

This concerns mysterious disappearance of Howard Hughes believed absent from Las Vegas, Nevada, since at least Thanksgiving night, 11/26/70.

Attached advises that H. M. Greenspun, Publisher, "Las Vegas Sun" daily newspaper contacted SAC, Las Vegas 12/4/70 and is of opinion that Hughes was abducted or transported out of State by unknown persons possibly seeking to gain control of huge Hughes business complex. He plans to break story about 12/5/70 and said "Los Angeles Times" will run a simultaneous headline story. In his opinion FBI should initiate investigation immediately and if not done, he will point out FBI had been advised and "had refused to conduct investigation."

[REDACTED] advised he is unaware of circumstances surrounding disappearance of Hughes but has verified Hughes left Las Vegas about 11/26/70.

The whereabouts of the five individuals in contact with Hughes on daily basis are also unknown. [REDACTED] of opinion Hughes left through direction of Frank W. Gay and Chester Davis, General Counsel of Hughes Tool Company. [REDACTED] convinced Hughes is currently at Emerald Beach Hotel, Nassau, where entire floor has been reserved since 1957.

Las Vegas will maintain liaison with [REDACTED] but will conduct no investigation.

[REDACTED] POINTED OUT HE IS AWARE THAT HUGHES IS IN EXTREMELY POOR PHYSICAL CONDITION AND IS HIGHLY SUSCEPTIBLE TO RESPIRATORY AILMENTS IF NOT CONFINED TO CONTROLLED CLIMATIC CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH HE HAS LIVED FOR SEVERAL YEARS IN DESERT INN QUARTERS AT LAS VEGAS. HE ALSO STATED THAT HE HAS CERTAIN KNOWLEDGE THAT HUGHES HAS FREQUENT MENTAL LAPSES FOR PERIODS UP TO SEVERAL WEEKS AT A TIME. HE SPECULATED THAT HE DOES NOT FEEL THAT HUGHES COULD HAVE DEPARTED LAS VEGAS OF HIS OWN VOLITION DUE TO HIS CURRENT PHYSICAL AND MENTAL CONDITION.

[REDACTED] STATED THIS INCIDENT COULD REPRESENT THE "BOLDEST KIDNAPING IN HISTORY" AND SPOKE OF CONTACTING THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES TO ENLIST WHATEVER AID HE COULD AFFORD TO LOCATE HUGHES. [REDACTED] ALSO SPOKE OF THE SERIOUS EFFECT HUGHES' DISAPPEARANCE AND/OR DEPARTURE FROM LAS VEGAS COULD HAVE ON THE ECONOMY OF NEVADA. HE COMMENTED THAT THE FBI IS THE ONLY AGENCY AT LOCAL OR FEDERAL LEVEL CAPABLE OF CONDUCTING THE TYPE OF INVESTIGATION NEEDED IN THIS CASE.

END PAGE TWO

[REDACTED] IDENTIFIED NO SUSPECTS OTHER THAN FRANK W. GAY, LONG-TIME HUGHES TOOL CO. EXECUTIVE WHO FELL OUT OF FAVOR WITH HUGHES SEVERAL YEARS AGO. HE STATED GAY HAS RECENTLY ATTEMPTED TO GAIN CONTROL OF ALL EMPLOYEES ACTUALLY IN PERSONAL CONTACT WITH HUGHES ON A DAILY BASIS IN ORDER TO REGAIN A POSITION OF PROMINENCE IN THE HUGHES STRUCTURE. [REDACTED] INDICATED HE HAS BEEN IN TOUCH WITH TOP HUGHES COMPANY OFFICIALS IN TEXAS AND CALIFORNIA, HOWEVER, THE^y ALL REFER HIM TO ROBERT MAHEU, DIRECTOR^A OF HUGHES NEVADA OPERATIONS, FOR ANY COMMENT OR INFORMATION. ||

[REDACTED] STATED IN HIS OPINION THIS WAS CLEARLY A VIOLATION OF THE FEDERAL KIDNAPPING STATUTE AND THE FBI SHOULD INITIATE INVESTIGATION IMMEDIATELY. HE POINTED OUT [REDACTED] PLANS TO BREAK THE STORY OF THE KIDNAPING WITH A HEADLINE ARTICLE ABOUT DECEMBER FIVE NEXT AND SAID THE "LOS ANGELES TIMES" WILL RUN A SIMULTANEOUS HEADLINE STORY. [REDACTED] IS IN^{TO H} TOUCH^X WITH PRACTICALLY ALL FACETS OF THE NATIONAL NEWS MEDIA, WHICH ELEMENTS HAVE HELD OFF ON THE STORY UNTIL SUCH TIME [REDACTED] CONCLUDES WHETHER THERE IS BASIS

FOR A KIDNAPING STORY OF NATIONAL SIGNIFICANCE. HE STATED THAT IN THE EVENT THE FBI HAD NOT INITIATED INVESTIGATION BY [REDACTED] [REDACTED] WOULD BE FORCED TO POINT OUT THAT THE FBI HAD BEEN ADVISED IN THIS MATTER AND "HAD REFUSED TO CONDUCT INVESTIGATION". [REDACTED] EXPRESSED KEEN DISAPPOINTMENT [REDACTED] WAS UNABLE TO GET IN TOUCH WITH MAHEU, INDICATING [REDACTED] FELT SURE MAHEU'S UNAVAILABILITY TO [REDACTED] CONTRIVED. b7c

[REDACTED] TODAY ADVISED THAT HE IS UNAWARE OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING THE MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF HOWARD HUGHES OTHER² THAT^N HAVING VERIFIED THAT HE LEFT LAS VEGAS ABOUT NOVEMBER TWENTY-SIX LAST. HE STATED THAT THE WHEREABOUTS OF THE FIVE INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE IN CLOSE CONTACT WITH HUGHES ON A DAILY BASIS ARE ALSO UNKNOWN. [REDACTED] COMMENTED THAT IT IS HIS OPINION THAT HUGHES WAS EITHER FORCED OR CONVINCED TO LEAVE UNDER MYSTERIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES BY PERSONS UNDER THE DIRECTION OF FRANK W. GAY AND CHESTER DAVIS, GENERAL COUNSEL OF HUGHES TOOL COMPANY. HE AGAIN POINTED OUT THAT DAVIS AND GAY IN HIS OPINION ARE b7c

ATTEMPTING TO GAIN CONTROL OF THE COMPANY AND PROBABLY FELT THAT THEY MUST REMOVE HUGHES FROM THE INFLUENCE OF MAHEU IN ORDER TO ACCOMPLISH THEIR OBJECTIVE. HE POINTED OUT THAT THE FIVE INDIVIDUALS REFERRED TO ABOVE ARE UNDER VIRTUALLY THE COMPLETE CONTROL OF GAY WITHOUT THE KNOWLEDGE OF HUGHES. HE POINTED OUT THAT BY CONTROLLING THESE PEOPLE GAY AND DAVIS HAVE BEEN ABLE TO ALMOST COMPLETELY CONTROL ALL COMMUNICATION TO AND FROM HUGHES.

[REDACTED] STATED THAT CONTINUING INQUIRY HE HAS CONDUCTED SINCE HUGHES' DISAPPEARANCE HAS CONVINCED HIM THAT HUGHES IS CURRENTLY AT THE EMERALD BEACH HOTEL, NASSAU. HE POINTED OUT THAT AN ENTIRE FLOOR OF THE LATTER HOTEL AS WELL AS AN ENTIRE FLOOR OF THE BRITANNIA HOTEL HAVE BEEN RESERVED FOR HUGHES SINCE NINETEEN FIFTY-SEVEN. [REDACTED] AGREED THAT HE WOULD KEEP THIS OFFICE PROMPTLY ADVISED OF ANY FURTHER VERIFICATION OF HUGHES' PRESENCE

IN THE BAHAMAS AS WELL AS ANY OTHER SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENT IN THIS MATTER.

THE ONLY BASIS FOR A CONCLUSION OF ABDUCTION IN THIS MATTER IS SHEER SPECULATION. BY [REDACTED] OWN ADMISSION HUGHES HAS FOR ABOUT A YEAR CONSIDERED THE POSSIBILITY OF A MOVE TO THE BAHAMAS. IT IS ALSO POINTED OUT THAT HUGHES HAS A LONG HISTORY OF MYSTERIOUS MOVEMENTS UNDER SECRETIVE CIRCUMSTANCES. ACCORDINGLY, LAS VEGAS WILL MAINTAIN APPROPRIATE LIAISON WITH [REDACTED] TO BE ADVISED OF FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS, BUT WILL CONDUCT NO INVESTIGATION IN THIS MATTER UNDER KIDNAPING OR OTHER FEDERAL STATUTES. 5716

ANY ADDITIONAL INFORMATION WHICH [REDACTED] DESIRES TO FURNISH WILL, OF COURSE, BE ACCEPTED, HOWEVER, ANY INQUIRIES HE MAKES AS TO WHETHER WE ARE CONDUCTING ANY INVESTIATION IN THE MATTER WILL BE ANSWERED WITH NO COMMENT.

In connection with the recommendation set forth in memorandum A. Rosen to Mr. Sullivan, December 15, 1970, I called SAC Whittaker in Miami on December 15, 1970, and instructed him to make arrangements for two Miami Agents familiar with the Bahamas to proceed there on December 16, 1970, in order to locate and interview [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

SAC Whittaker was informed that background material, consisting of seven teletypes from the Las Vegas Office, was being sent to Miami that day by special courier and that the Washington Field Office would advise when this material was to arrive.

I told Whittaker that the purpose of these interviews was to determine whether or not the disappearance of Hughes would be in violation of any Federal law over which we had jurisdiction and that it should be made perfectly clear to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that we are not interested in the inner workings of the company nor the dispute which exists concerning the control of Hughes' Nevada operations. Signed statements should be obtained if at all possible.

I also talked to ASAC Dulinsky in Las Vegas and informed him that arrangements were being made for the Miami Office to send Agents to the Bahamas on December 16, 1970, to locate and interview [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Dulinsky said they had been endeavoring all day to determine the exact whereabouts of these two individuals; however, they had obtained no information in this regard. He said if any such information was developed later that evening, the Bureau would be immediately advised.

ACTION: This is submitted for record purposes.

Reference is made to memorandum from A. Rosen to Mr. Sullivan dated 12-17-70, in which [REDACTED] volunteered information to our Las Vegas Office concerning [REDACTED] who was allegedly present when an individual believed to be Hughes was removed from his hotel in Las Vegas and taken to the airport. [REDACTED] also believed [REDACTED] named [REDACTED] to have first-hand information concerning Hughes's departure. [REDACTED] was allegedly hired for his assignment by Roy Crawford, a male secretary of Howard Hughes's, and a person believed to be Howard Eckersley, Hughes's personal secretary, was present at the time of Hughes's departure. Instructions were issued to interview [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at once and then [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was located and he advised he had no personal knowledge of the matter and received his information from [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised Agents he was paid $500 by an H. L. Crawford (possibly identical with Roy Crawford, a Hughes aide) to guard five automobiles at the exit of the Desert Inn Hotel in Las Vegas. He stated that about 1:40 a. m., 11-26-70, he saw four men exit the hotel and believes one to have been Hughes. This individual was heard to say "Will someone get Bob Maheu or Pat Hyland." (Hyland is head of Hughes Aircraft Company in California).

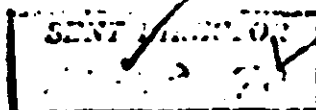

EX-113

62-99801-24

[REDACTED] was interviewed [REDACTED] and advised that Hughes decided to remove Robert Maheu as number one man in his Nevada enterprises because of Maheu's lavish spending over the past three years but considered placing him in another position with less authority. He stated on 11-14-70, Hughes signed a proxy giving the Hughes Tool Company authority to vote his stock. He said 14 months ago Hughes talked about moving and rented rooms at the Britannia Beach Hotel, Nassau, in the Bahamas, but only decided to leave Las Vegas approximately three days before his departure. He stated on 11-25-70, Hughes decided the time had come to remove Maheu and advised Eckersley that Maheu would be irrational when he received the news and he (Hughes) did not want to be present.

RE: HOWARD HUGHES

[redacted] advised that at 8:30 p. m., 11-25-70, John Holmes, George Francom, LaVar Myler, Gordon Margolis and [redacted] took Hughes down a stairway through an apparel shop door and into a panel truck in the west parking lot of his hotel. He stated Hughes wore dark glasses and could hardly see so he was supported by his aides. He stated the only person Hughes spoke to was to say hello to Margolis after leaving the building. He stated they departed from Nellis Air Force Base, Las Vegas, which was arranged by Lockheed Aircraft Vice President Jack Real and that a group consisting of [redacted] Holmes, Francom, Myler, Carl Romm and Norman Crane accompanied Hughes to Nassau. He stated Crane is Hughes's physician and although Hughes was not ill, he wanted him present. He further advised that after arrival in the Bahamas, Hughes read Hank Greenspun article (publisher of Las Vegas Sun) alleging that he was kidnaped and advised the Hughes Tool Company director that the proxy should be executed immediately removing Maheu. He stated that Hughes is presently in the Bahamas with his aides b7c/d

[redacted] was interviewed by Bureau Agents in Miami, Florida, 12-18-70, and advised that he did not make the trip from Las Vegas to the Bahamas with the Hughes party and that he did not take part in the planning for the trip and did not learn of the details until he went back on duty, Sunday, 11-29-70, in Nassau. [redacted] advised that he does not know Forsythe and Welges and knows of no H. L. or H. G. Crawford. He stated that Hughes's trip to the Bahamas had been planned for over a year and the general details were known by Maheu and Hooper (another individual allegedly fired by Hughes). He stated the actual trip was changed at the last minute which was known only by the individuals taking part in the trip which did not include himself. b7c/d

[redacted] on 12-18-70, advised it was learned that Brigadier General H. K. Hansen, Commanding General, Nellis Air Force Base, had been asked by his superiors to explain why a civilian aircraft had been cleared for take off on the evening before Thanksgiving (11-25-70) [redacted] said it appears a colonel from the Judge Advocate General's Office had knowledge of this and an unknown captain apparently observed a man loaded into a civilian plane on a stretcher completely immobile at Nellis Air Force Base on the evening of 11-25-70. No information as to the identities of the colonel or captain is known. [redacted] said General Hansen testified in closed court session, 12-18-70. b7c/d

RE: HOWARD HUGHES

ACTION: On the basis of information given our Agents, it appears [REDACTED] allegations may not be valid; however, it is to be noted that the only way to be certain that Hughes was not kidnaped is to interview Hughes and ask him if he was, in fact, kidnaped.

If the Director wishes, this will be done.

No. Discontinue this inquiry. & HLB

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Maheu is [REDACTED] a very lavish spender, having built a residence in Las Vegas for himself which cost approximately $800,000. [REDACTED] indicated Hughes has been disenchanted for several years and finally decided to fire Maheu after Maheu purchased an airplane without consulting Hughes, even though he knew Hughes wanted to select the plane himself. [REDACTED] accused Maheu of currently employing gangster tactics and hiring private detectives who were discovered in a hotel room below Hughes' suite in a Nassau hotel. [REDACTED] personally aided Hughes in leaving Las Vegas at Hughes' request. Efforts to locate [REDACTED] and interview him concerning specific details involving Hughes' departure from Las Vegas are continuing. Information has been received that [REDACTED] may have returned to the Bahamas.

Investigation in Las Vegas to locate [REDACTED] indicates the possibility he may be in hiding and, in all probability, he will be returning to the Bahamas in the near future. Information developed through immigration cards:

SUBJECT: HOWARD HUGHES
INFORMATION CONCERNING -
MISSING PERSON

In connection with the power struggle for control of Howard Hughes's Nevada interests, [REDACTED] volunteered information to our Las Vegas Office concerning a [REDACTED] who was allegedly

[REDACTED] present when an individual believed to be Hughes was removed from his hotel in Las Vegas and taken to the airport. [REDACTED] also believed [REDACTED] to have first hand information concerning Hughes's departure. Pursuant to instructions that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] should be interviewed, [REDACTED] was located, and he advised he had no personal knowledge of the matter and received his information from [REDACTED] b7c/d

[REDACTED] advised Agents he was paid $500 by an H. L. Crawford (possibly identical with Roy Crawford, a Hughes aide) to guard five automobiles at the exit of the Desert Inn Hotel in Las Vegas. He stated that about 1:40 a. m. 11/26/70, he saw four men exit the hotel and believes one to have been Hughes. This individual was heard to say "Will someone get Bob Maheu or Pat Hyland." (Hyland is head of Hughes Aircraft Company in California).

From description furnished by [REDACTED] believed one individual leaving hotel with Hughes was Howard Ekersley, aide to Hughes. Las Vegas believed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to be in the Bahamas, and pursuant to instructions that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were to be interviewed, Miami dispatched two Agents to the Bahamas 12/16/70. b7c/d

Information was developed that both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are in the U. S. now and that [REDACTED] is scheduled to appear at Court proceedings in Las Vegas. [REDACTED] another Hughes aide, was interviewed and states he departed Las Vegas at Nassau, Bahamas, [REDACTED] b7c/d

Dear Sirs,

I am wondering about Howard Hughes. They say he has been located, but no one has really seen him in person at his quarters or his lodging place to identify him. I think he isn't alive. The Crooks and swindlers have him under their control, if he is alive like being kidnaped and doped, Please for (illegible) act and Justice fairly Please investigate and trace out and track it through search - carefully to uncover the facts to determine the truth. Please do not let these swindlers get by and make a fool out of ever one - get behind them I truly trust you will search at once and one of your ~~men~~ Men will see Mr Howard Hughes in person and take him from the swindleers and let him live a normal life and be his self, like god intended I pray and trust you do this at once he pay you all for your work and investigation when he is his self.

From: John J. McFall, Member of Congress

Attached is a copy of a newspaper article from the Modesto Bee, Modesto, Calif., suggesting a Federal investigation of an incident involving Howard Hughes and his interests in Nevada, sent to me by a constituent who agrees with such action.

It would be appreciated if I could be advised as to the possibility of such investigation by the Department.

Help For Hughes

Editor of The Bee—Sir: According to newspaper reports, Howard Hughes was taken from his Las Vegas residence on a stretcher. One parking lot attendant swore he heard a call for help.

Now, in this almost unbelievable episode there is a fingerprinted letter from Hughes changing his controlling interest in Nevada.

I do not care what the Nevada authorities say, and they could be money blinded. A man's fingerprints could be forcibly placed on any letter or document.

If an ordinary citizen disappeared under the same circumstances, the Federal Bureau of Investigation would be quick to investigate.

The question could be, "Does the US Government share in this huge estate, or, did the Nevada gambling interests divide it up?"

Hughes has a billion reasons for loving his country. I am sure he would vote for his government.

In this great and just land of ours, the rich also have equal protection under the law. If you want an investigation, write your congressman, or clip this letter and mail it to him.

Modesto LARRY KENNEDY.

Howard Hughes and His Hired Hands

By Jack Anderson

LAS VEGAS—From his penthouse hermitage, Howard Hughes used to issue orders to public officials as if they were hired hands.

We have obtained copies of the secret, scribbled instructions he handed down to his Nevada foreman, Robert Maheu.

For four years, the nation's richest man lived as a recluse in a clinically sealed penthouse above Las Vegas' neon glitter. He grew a long white beard and acquired a multi-million-dollar collection of gambling casinos and silver mines.

To ramrod this dazzling empire, he hired Maheu, an ex-FBI agent, who had been operating a private Missions Impossible agency in Washington, D.C.

Not even Maheu ever saw the elusive Hughes, who kept out of sight in his neon-lit lair surrounded only by six male nursemaid-bodyguards. Maheu got all his orders by telephone or in writing.

Now Hughes has disappeared from Nevada as mysteriously as his dark-of-night arrival four years earlier. But his hand-written memos to Maheu remain behind under court seal.

These memos indicate that Paul Laxalt, while governor of Nevada, was deeply involved in helping Hughes acquire some of the state's most glamorous gambling places. Even the head of the FBI in Las Vegas, Harold "Red" Campbell, was pressed into assisting Hughes with his acquisitions, according to the memos.

Nevada's two senators, Alan Bible and Howard Cannon, were reported in the memos to be running interference for Hughes in Washington.

When the Justice Department threatened to go to court to block Hughes from amassing more casinos, Maheu reported to the penthouse that "many friends in Washington" had intervened. Among them, he said, was Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman James Eastland (D-Miss.).

In 1968, Hughes tried unsuccessfully to take over Harrah's famous gambling emporiums at Reno and Lake Tahoe. He scribbled impatient instructions to Maheu.

"I feel," Hughes wrote, "the Gov. should point out to Harrah the obvious unfairness in encouraging us for six months to believe the price will be based upon the general formula I spelled out and then a complete reversal of his position and a demand that we pay for the Tahoe Club alone the identical price he had been quoting for the two clubs combined in one package."

"I feel the Gov. ought to explain to Harrah that you don't treat friends in this way. Let's have the Gov. working on this."

It was Hughes' attempt to buy the Stardust in Las Vegas, however, that finally got him into trouble with the Justice Department's antitrust division in 1968.

Yet he wrote Maheu: "I feel that since the Governor . . . (has) gone out on a limb to sponsor this deal, we are obligated to go thru with it. And that goes even tho Laxalt may say we are free to do as we wish. . . . We must close the transaction."

But later, Hughes apparently wavered in his thinking. He wrote Maheu on March 14, 1968: "Are you sure that we should go ahead with this deal instead of taking this opportunity to offer the Gov. a compromise which will place him in debt to us for a long time to come?"

Hughes was also getting some static over his acquisitions from George Dickerson, then a member of the Nevada Gambling Commission. For the billionaire was dickering not only to take over the Stardust but the Silver Slipper and Silver Nugget casinos as well.

"Bob," Hughes instructed Maheu, "I approve heartily of arranging a meeting between you and Dickerson and the Nevada head of the FBI. I urge you to arrange with the above head of the FBI that he will explain to Dickerson the urgency of our buying out the Stardust and Slipper operating groups."

"At the same meeting, please try to arrange that Mr. FBI of Nevada will convince Dickerson also of the likewise importance of our buying out the SIL. NUG. of ALV. & STARDUST."

of the criminal element now gathering there."

Paul Laxalt, who retired from the governorship this year to return to private law practice, told us he had merely made appointments to help Hughes build up his Nevada empire.

"We thought heavy Hughes involvement in Nevada was healthy," Laxalt explained. He said he had turned down overtures from Hughes to join his organization. "I gave him a hand-written memo indicating I couldn't join him," Laxalt said. He acknowledged, however, that he does some consulting work for the Hughes interests.

Harold Campbell, the local FBI head, refused to return our calls.

Footnote: after the Justice Department threatened to file a lawsuit to stop Hughes from purchasing the Stardust, Maheu reported to Hughes on June 28, 1968:

"Howard Cannon called me this afternoon to inform that he and Sen. Bible have been told all day long—by fellow senators—that they can depend on full support and assistance in sustaining their position that we obtain the Stardust. . . ."

"In the meantime, I've been in constant touch with George Franklin (then Las Vegas district attorney) and Gov. Laxalt, and they are both ready to challenge the Department single-handedly."

As you may recall, by teletype 8-3-71, SAC Campbell, Las Vegas, reported columnist Anderson was trying to reach him by telephone and Campbell stated he would not return Anderson's call. The Director agreed.

SAC Campbell now reports that an Anderson column appearing in the "Nevada State Journal," Reno, Nevada, 8-7-71 alleging Hughes' influence exerted at various official levels in building his Nevada real estate empire, claims that SAC Campbell was pressed into assisting Hughes with his acquisitions. Anderson in his column claims he had obtained copies of secret, scribbled instructions Hughes directed to his "Nevada foreman," Robert Mahou, regarding influence to be exerted on public officials on Hughes' behalf. Anderson states that the "head of the FBI in Las Vegas, Harold (Red) Campbell," was included.

In connection with alleged difficulty Hughes was experiencing with Nevada Gaming Commission Member George Dickerson in his attempted acquisition of the Stardust and Silver Slipper casinos, Anderson quotes from one of the notes from Hughes to Mahou as follows: "Bob, I approve heartily of arranging a meeting between you and Dickerson and the Nevada head of the FBI. I urge you to pre-arrange with the above head of the FBI that he will explain to Dickerson the urgency of our buying out the Stardust and Silver Slipper operating groups." Anderson later states that "Harold Campbell, the local FBI head, refused to return our calls."

The following information is being furnished to the Bureau for information purposes:

[REDACTED] made available to [REDACTED] paper back book entitled, "Howard Hughes in Las Vegas," written by OMAR GARRISON, which pointed out on page 220 that HUGHES created a new identity and assumed the name of R. WAYNE RECTOR. [REDACTED] also made available a copy of "Look" Magazine dated June 1, 1971, which contained an article concerning HUGHES. Page 24 of the magazine contains a handwritten letter purportedly written by HUGHES to BOB MAHEU. [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] that this letter contains the handwriting of [REDACTED] WAYNE RECTOR. [REDACTED] advised that he has seen the original handwriting of [REDACTED] former husband and after comparing the original handwriting with that contained in the magazine article, the possibility exists that the two may be identical.

[REDACTED] stated he knows [REDACTED] personally and does not consider her to be unstable. He advised he will maintain the above articles should these be of any interest to the Bureau.

Director, FBI

HOWARD R. HUGHES

As you are well aware, the news media have recently been carrying various stories pertaining to the authenticity of an alleged biography of Howard R. Hughes to be published by McGraw-Hill and "Life" magazine.

Information has come to my attention to indicate that McGraw-Hill has now concluded that the entire matter is a complete hoax and that the company has been swindled for the monies paid out.

McGraw-Hill had placed reliance on certain documents furnished by Clifford Irving, author of the allegedly approved biography, which had been subjected to handwriting examination by the company. Once the ominous possibility of fraud and forgery had surfaced, McGraw-Hill submitted the documents for further, and more careful, examination which gave definite evidence that they were fraudulent. Additionally, comparison of known fingerprints of Mr. Hughes on a fingerprint card obtained from the Nevada Gaming Commission with latent prints developed on the documents determined that none of them belonged to Mr. Hughes.

Investigation conducted by McGraw-Hill has now led them to believe that the documents were prepared by an international art forger by the name of De Nery and the investigation by that company is now being directed toward the development of that information.

Result of examination:

Howard H. Hughes

Due to the limited nature of the questioned signature on Q1 and because of the differences in time in the preparation of the questioned signature and available known signatures, a definite conclusion could not be reached whether the questioned signature on Q1 was prepared by HOWARD HOWARD HUGHES, whose available known handwriting consists of signatures appearing on fingerprint cards.

It is noted that a few hand printing characteristics in common were noted in the hand printing after the Hughes signature on Line 7 and the hand printing on Line 8 of Q1 indicating the possibility that one person may have prepared this hand printing.

Q1 has been photographed and is returned herewith. A separate report is being furnished on the requested fingerprint examination of Q1.

SUBJECT: PHILLIP GAILEY
 KNIGHT NEWSPAPERS
 REQUEST FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING
dr BEBE REBOZO - HOWARD HUGHES MATTER

On 11-20-73, Mr. Gailey (office telephone 638-2844) telephonically contacted me for verification of the New York Times story of 11-20-73 captioned, "Versions of Gift by Hughes Differ," (attached) which set forth that an FBI agent and the President seemed to be in conflict on funds returned by Rebozo. This matter, of course, refers to the $100,000 gift from Howard Hughes to Rebozo and the New York Times story recounts that SAC Kenneth W. Whittaker, Miami Office, would be interviewed by the Watergate committee staff. Mr. Gailey requested of me as to whether the FBI had any comment about the possible conflict between the various sources of this story. I told him that we were not in a position to furnish him any information at this time as facts in this matter were still being developed.

I mentioned to Mr. Gailey that should in the future a statement from the FBI be forthcoming, I would see that he was personally contacted in view of his interest in this matter. Mr. Gailey was most appreciative.

VERSIONS OF GIFT BY HUGHES DIFFER

F.B.I. Agent and President
Seen in Conflict on Funds
Returned by Rebozo

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—An agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation has given his superiors an account that appears to contradict President Nixon's version of how a secret $100,000 gift from Howard R. Hughes, the billionaire industrialist, was handled.

Mr. Nixon reportedly told a group of Representatives last week that his confidante and sometime business partner, C. G. Rebozo of Miami, "had the F.B.I. check it out."

[The F.B.I., Mr. Nixon reportedly said, had the 1,001 $100 bills fingerprinted and the serial numbers checked to make sure that the money originally given to Mr. Rebozo for Mr. Nixon was the same money that was returned.

"So maybe Mr. Rebozo isn't so dumb," said the President, according to notes made by Representative Charles W. Whalen Jr., an Ohio Republican.

Mr. Nixon made his comment after reports that the Watergate committee was investigating the $100,000 to see if it had been used for other than campaign purposes.

Kenneth Whitaker, the special agent in charge of the Miami field office of the F.B.I. who is the agent to whom Mr. Nixon reportedly referred, has told his superiors that Mr. Rebozo asked him to verify that the $100,000 returned to Mr. Hughes was the same money he had been given.

Mr. Whitaker, a personal friend of Mr. Rebozo, said he could not do it.

He said that the serial numbers on the bill that he saw were not the same as the bills now.

Was Shown the Money

Mr. Whitaker, called to Washington to be interviewed by the Watergate committee staff, told superiors in the Justice Department that Mr. Rebozo showed him the money about six months before it was returned.

Mr. Rebozo, according to the Miami Herald, said that he did not take an inventory of the bills or take them to the bank. Instead, he decided to retain them. He told the Herald that this was after the Senate Watergate committee had begun its investigation. It is not known if the Hughes Organization has a record of the serial numbers on the bills that were given to Mr. Rebozo.

Mr. Rebozo had the money in safety deposit boxes in his Key Biscayne Bank and Trust Company, where President Nixon and members of his family maintain checking accounts.

Mr. Whitaker declined comment.

However, sources said he had been asked to explain why he had such a conversation with a private citizen without reporting to his superiors, and why he did not immediately report having seen the $100,000.

The money was sent to Mr. Rebozo for Mr. Nixon in 1970 in two shipments of $50,000. A former aide of Mr. Hughes, Robert V. Whitten, has said half the money was supposed to bring a favorable ruling on an antitrust problem.

Different Stories

Robert Danner, the manager of a gambling casino and hotel owned by Mr. Hughes, who delivered the money, said in a deposition that it was for the 1970 Congressional elections.

Mr. Rebozo has said he put the money in safe deposit boxes to hold for the 1972 Presidential election and did not tell Mr. Nixon about it.

In a news conference on Oct. 26, Mr. Nixon praised his friend's handling of the money.

"Let me say that he showed, I think, very good judgment in doing what he did," the President said. "He received a contribution. He was prepared to turn it over to the finance chairman when the finance chairman was appointed."

"But in that interval after he received the contribution and before the finance chairman was appointed, the Hughes company had an antitrust fight of massive proportions and he felt that such a contribution to the campaign might prove to be embarrassing."

"At the conclusion of the campaign he decided that it would be in the best interests of everyone concerned rather than to turn the money over to the finance chairman to use in the campaign."

"And I would say that any individual who voluntarily contributes to a campaign is a patriotic citizen and not touch it because it was turned back in exactly the form it was received. I think that's a pretty good indication that he is a fairly honest man."

"Which he is."

Mr. Danner, a one-time F.B.I. agent and former city manager of Miami, said he delivered half the money to Mr. Rebozo at the Key Biscayne Bank and the other half at President Nixon's home at San Clemente.

He said he could not remember which delivery was made first, but he said he told Mr. Rebozo when he visited the bank "there is the first or the second installment as the case may be."

All the money was in cash. Mr. Rebozo discussed the money with the Miami Herald. Mr. Rebozo discussed the money with the Miami Herald.

"In the beginning, Daner, had called me and wanted me to come to Washington or New York," Mr. Rebozo said.

"I'm not sure which city. They wanted to contribute $50,000. Daner was not with Howard Hughes at the time. This was during the 1968 campaign.

"He introduced me to an attorney there who wanted to give the money directly to the President and I told him there was no chance of that.

"The President has never handled money... even his personal money, he doesn't handle.

"The attorney was Ed Morgan. Now, this isn't to be confused with Ed Morgan who was later an advance man. This is Morgan from the law firm of Welch & Morgan.

"The more I talked with him, the more I felt disinclined to accept it. I notice in the press that Daner says in his deposition that Don Nixon was involved.

"I don't recall that. Don Nixon may have been in town, but I don't recall that as being the reason.

Mr. Rebozo said at first he refused to accept money from the Hughes people because of the embarrassment suffered by Mr. Nixon after his brother borrowed $250,000 from a Hughes associate in 1964.

At one point, "Daner came and said," because he wanted to take money for Mr. Nixon from the Hughes group, Mr. Rebozo said.

Finally, he said, he relented and agreed to take the money. The first $50,000 was delivered in July, 1970, and the second $50,000 some months later, he said.

The money, all in cash, was stored in safety deposit boxes in Mr. Rebozo's bank on Key Biscayne.

"The reason I put it in the bank was that we had no finance director at the time and I was waiting for him to be named," Mr. Rebozo said. "In the meantime, something happened between Mahon and Hughes and they had all that flap out there and I began to get memories of that $250,000 situation.

"I thought I would just sit tight and wait to see if this blew over, and then use it. It didn't get any better, so then I thought, well maybe it will still quiet down and we can use it in the '74 Congressional race, because heaven knows he'll need more help than ever before. But it just got worse and worse, and I gave it back."

Mr. Rebozo said he and one of his attorneys had access to the boxes with the $100,000 and said he had told Rose Mary Wood, Mr. Nixon's personal secretary, "just for insurance."

After the 1972 Presidential election, Mr. Rebozo said he decided he ought to tell the President about the money.

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING
BEBE REBOZO AND RETURN OF $100,000
CONTRIBUTION TO HOWARD HUGHES

On Saturday, 11-17-73, Sandy Smith, Time Magazine, (Office telephone 293-4300; residence telephone (Annapolis, Maryland) 301-757-4835) telephonically contacted me at home concerning information that he had regarding an FBI agent being present with Mr. Rebozo when $100,000 was counted in Rebozo's bank in Key Biscayne, Florida, which money had originally been contributed to President Nixon's reelection campaign. Mr. Smith stated his purpose in calling was that the White House and the Hill were circulating stories concerning the FBI's participation in this matter and in some details were quite conflicting. He wanted to know if we could assist Time Magazine in straightening the matter out.

I advised Mr. Smith that we were not in a position to furnish him any information at this time as the facts in this matter were still being developed. I mentioned to him that we desired to be helpful and should we have a public statement to make at a later date we would be in touch with him personally in view of his interest in this matter.

Mr. Smith thanked me for my cooperation and advised that the next time he was in the Department of Justice he would stop by to see me personally.
